

Biplant

EN

For manufacturers:

productivity gains by 10-20% / teams engaged and aligned / better internal communication

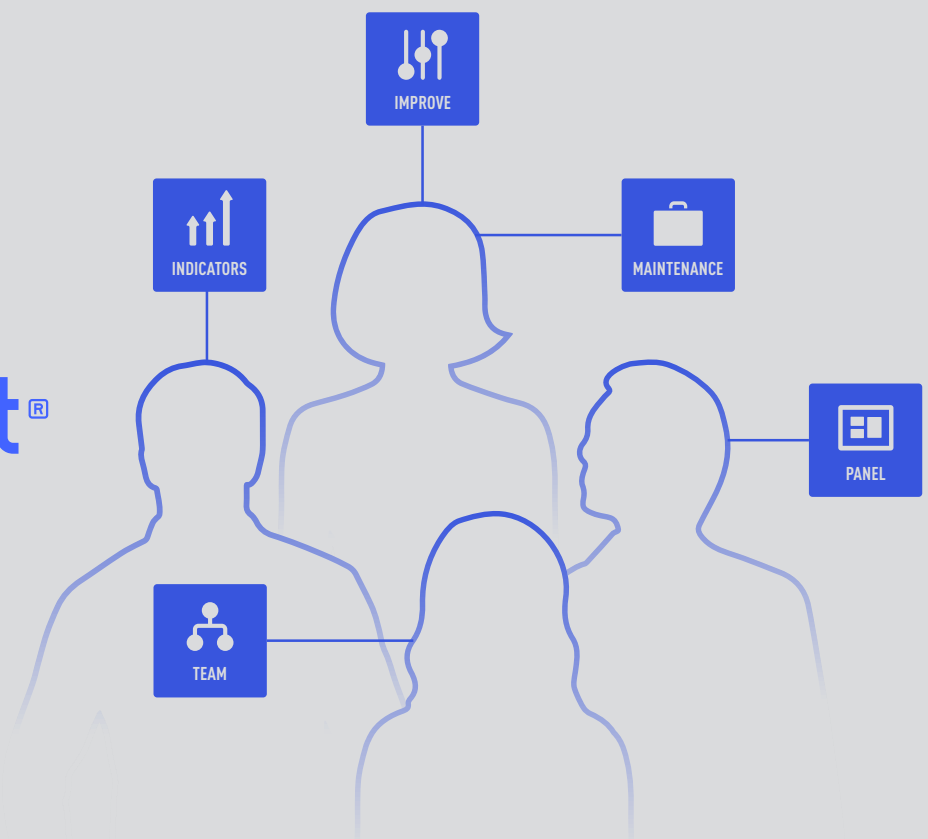

For teams:

routines made easier / reduced workload / decision-taking support / a tool for problem-solving

For management:

zero information losses / no information deviation / reducing information biases / facilitated production follow-up / fluid information processes

biplant®

A system in manufacturing with

Simplicity

in the conception and relevant information analysis

Integrability

from different databases and data exportation

Modularity

with partial upgrades in distinct formats

Portability

with access through the web to any place in the world

Expansibility

to accomplish the structure of the business, and other peripherals

Redundancy

in reading and data storage

A platform built with modules for usual management functions:

production lines
or cells

quality

safety

improvement

team skills

team organization

team routines and communication

maintenance

environment impact

kpi for team and managers

objectives and goals
maps